INSTRUCTION TO AUTHORS REGARDING FUUAST JOURNAL OF LAW AND POLICY (FJLP): STYLE AND FORMATTING

FJLP required authors to submit hard and soft/electronic copy of the manuscript in the prescribed format. The copy of the manuscript is to be emailed to: filp@fuuastisb.edu.pk. Before submission

Authors are required to read following guidelines.

- Authors of the submitted papers are under an obligation not to submit their papers for publication elsewhere unless a decision has been rendered by editorial board on their publication.
- Words limit for each Article should be from 6,000 to 8,000 words. In case of book reviews, wordslimit should not exceed from 600 to 1000 words.
- An abstract of not more than 200 words appear on the first page of manuscript followed by name, position and complete details of author. Book reviews must start with the citation on the top of their page.
- Authors are required to write in one either in British or American English throughout the article. It must be ensured that grammar and spellings are correct in the language before the submission of article.
- Pages should be numbered chronologically and submitted in Word Format, in 12 pt. Times New Roman or any other format closer to it with a double spaced text. The first line of each paragraph should be indented, except those following main and sub headings. The manuscript must be properly justified.
- Equations, long quotations, theorems, propositions, special remarks, tables, figures, graphs, and maps should be separated from the surrounding text by additional space above and below.

- If a quotation is less than fifty words or is no longer than three lines of the text, place the quotation in double marks but do not separate it from the text.
- If a quotation is of fifty words or is more than four lines, it should be block-indented and single spaced. Do not use quotation marks at the beginning or the end of the quotation. Further the quotation should be separated from the text (above and below) by a double spaced. In this case the font of a quotation is 11pt. Times New Roman or any other font closer to it.
- Footnotes and bibliography are to be used. Foot notes should be marked clearly in the text in numeric order after a point of punctuation and listed at the bottom of the relevant page.
- Footnote indicators should be placed at the end of a sentence, immediately after the punctuation point or closing quotation mark (with no space). Use the numerals (1, 2, 3 ...) for all footnotes. The font of the foot notes is 10pt. Times new Roman or any other font closer to it.
- In cases where one source is being cited for several references within a paragraph, number the reference only once at the end of the paragraph.
- Use ibid for reference to the previous footnote. For subsequent references to the same publication (not immediately following one another) use: 'Author surname, supra n X at Y'. The X represents the footnote number and the Y represents the page number.
- FJLP follows Chicago Manual of Style.
- Mentioned below are citation examples for foot notes and Bibliography respectively.

CALL FOR PAPERS

The FUUAST Journal of Law and Policy (FJLP), being an international journal, is pleased to invite you to submit your research paper for publication. We welcome high quality research papers from all over the world. All interested can submit their research papers in the shape of articles on legal issues, commentary on case-laws, reports on legislative developments and book reviews.

FJLP is dedicated to promote legal research and development. It offers a platform for leading researchers, judges, lawyers and other professionals in the field of law to actively collaborate with their counterparts across the globe.

It is to be ensured that the submission must be original and unpublished. Moreover authors of the submitted papers are under an obligation not to submit their papers for publication elsewhere unless a decision has been rendered by the editorial board on their papers.

Authors are requested to submit their research articles for Volume 1, Issue Number 1 before 30th January, 2016.

We are looking forward to receive high quality papers on different subjects of law. Please do not hesitate to contact us at fjlp@fuuastisb.edu.pk.

Best Regards
